- 2012: "Year of the Great Fires"
  - This does not mean that all of central Texas will suffer severe fires again.
  - Fires are a global occurrence. Most fires are in the known "Hot Spots", as well as being caused by lightening, volcanic activity, drought and man-made problems. We will have to be very careful and fire-conscious in August and September.
  - Russia is hard-hit, affecting their grain supply.
- Water
  - There will be early spring rains with flooding up& down the Mississippi river, in Arkansas and North Dakota. The East coast will experience more rain than usual.
  - Rain relief in the greater parts of Texas are welcome. This will not be enough to replenish our water supply as needed.
  - San Antonio will make a mistake with their aquifer control that leads to lawsuits with several counties.
  - There will be water issues, such as water leaks and foundation problems.
- Weather
  - July, August and September we will once again suffer heat and drought conditions. The electric rate hikes will make many more conservative.
  - Earthquake activities continue in Oklahoma, Texas and several coastal states. Nothing severe as will occur in China.
  - There will be island volcanic activity in July.
  - Radical weather patterns in all of Europe.
- Elections:
  - There will be an upset in the Republican race in the April-May time period that gives the Democrats an early lead.
  - Several senators will retire this year, expected and unexpected, with continued disharmony among the group Senate.
  - The election for president leaves no great joy for the majority of people. There will lots of confusion.
- Global Issues:
  - Korea brings attention to their nation through threat and military strutting. They have their own internal issues.
  - Continued changes in countries' government leadership.
  - Mexico will be disappointed with their newly elected president.
  - The drug cartel gets more aggressive with the Mexican government and with the border control agents in August.
  - Tunneling continues in El Paso.
- U.S. Issues
  - Some terrorist activity in US. Kept small.
  - Direct hit story
- Texas Issues:
  - Bush suffers a head injury in an accident.

- Technology continues to advance. IBM releases a "new" system to the technical world that puts them in the high tech spot light. They have been working 5 years on this project.
- Uncover agent killed in Austin connected to the cartel drug and gun running .

➤ Different Reality predictions:

- Chinese Year of the Water Dragon in Aries. Remember water puts the fire out.....
- This is a year to let go of old family patterns and all things not working in your life. Truthfulness will rise up in relationships and you will either go forward stronger or you will let go. Good time to begin a new relationship.
- Many elderly people will decide to pass in April and May. They have finished their contracts with Spirit and feel the new light receiving them. Quite beautiful.
- Children coming in will be spiritually awake and clear in their purposes because they will not take on what we are releasing of negative consciousness. They will have a natural Wisdom. More children here in the last 15 years will come into their psychic abilities over night.
- Be careful of a lot of internet scams.
- Just as the Harmonic Convergence began a powerful process of shifting awareness and our energies of psychic and spiritual awareness, so will the energy of 2012 have a purpose. With all the hype on the 2012 date for so many years it is not just a mistake, but I do not see this as the end of the world.
- Joy to the NEW BORN WORLD.
Joy is the FIRE
Born is the WATER
- With groups gathering at many sacred sites it will be a gathering of group consciousness full of hope and inspiration. Drummings will bring the welcoming of a greater light and our dedication to Spirit.
- As we see the Mayan calendar here, I see a Mayan calendar in the 5th dimension. We are in the 5th year of that calendar. The awareness of change.
- Visionaries and psychics will become even more open and experience heightened abilities in the November -December time period.
- The conversations on spirituality and unbelievable will sprout up everywhere.
- If we didn't believe in the impossible, how would that effect destiny.....movie June -July time our Elders of the light will remind us of our higher purpose to this journey and new decisions are made concerning our paths.
- November-December time there is the "stillness", a void of stillness that opens us to the new realities and spiritual abilities. This space is peaceful if you allow it. Time to meditate.

Then comes 2013.
